

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE

THE aim of this book is to make little children natural, intelligent, and fluent readers.

The sentences are short, simple, and comprehensive, leading to natural expression, and each lesson deals with the child's interests and experiences.

As new words are acquired, they are woven again and again into the text, making progress rapid and easy. Review pages are frequently introduced throughout the book, each one being as complete a story as the previous vocabulary will permit.

The three prominent features of the book are,—repetition of words, frequent reviews, and systematic grading.

An understanding of phonics is the magic key that unlocks all doors to the child, and it is most important that phonic study have its proportionate time and place in the schoolroom, outside of the book.

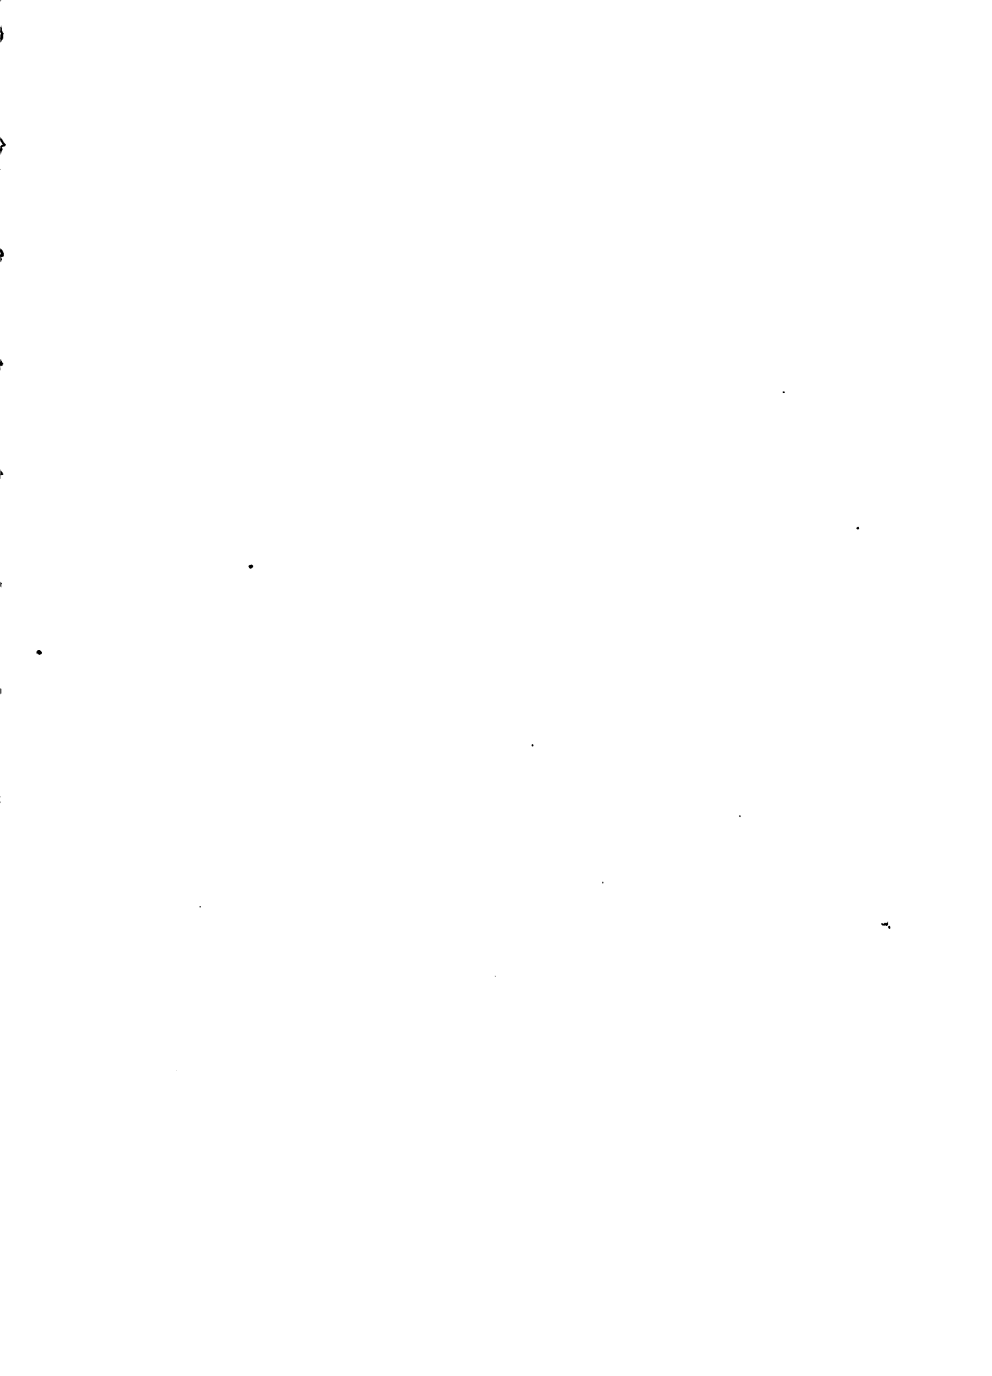

No book can furnish the drill needed, so the phonetic characters and suggestions herein presented are intended only to supplement the daily work and to add variety.

The book is lavishly illustrated in color and outline drawings, many of them being simple enough to copy or trace. These pictures provide an abundance of seat work, and if tablets and colored crayons or pencils are furnished as accessories, the result will be more attractive and satisfactory.

The object of the book will be accomplished if each step of the way is a pleasure and a gain to the child.

Who will buy?

Buy my good candy.

Will you buy some, little girls?

It is good to eat.

My mamma made it.

She made it for me to sell.

I sell it on Saturday.

I wish I could sell all this.

I wish you would buy some.

Do you see the little box?

What do you think it is for?

Here comes a little girl.

Candy to sell! Candy to sell!

Won't you buy some?

I do not give candy away.

I sell it for mamma.

Sometimes I eat a little.

I get hungry.

One day a man called me.

“Will you take my dog?” he said.

“He is hurt.

“He can’t run.

“Take him in your arms.”

“Don’t be afraid of him.

“He is a good dog.

“Take him to your papa.

“I think he can help him.”

“Is the dog yours?” said papa.

“The man did not give him to me.

“I think he will come for him.”

See how big he is now!

I can’t hold him.

One day the man called.

“Who is this?” he said.

“This can’t be my little dog.

“How big he is!

“Come, Dan, come,” he said.

Dan would not go.

“I see how it is,” said the man.

“He loves you.

“I will not take him away.

“You may have him.”

How glad we were!

How do I look?

I am going to have my picture taken.

Mildred put me here.

“Don’t go away, Trix,” she said.

Trix is my name.

I love Mildred.

We have fun together.

I don't like to sit still.

I like to run and play.

I wish I could run now.

Would you run away?

No, I think I will cry.

Mildred will hear me and come.

Here she comes.

I can see a man, too.

He has a big box.

Oh, I am afraid!

What is he going to do?

"Sit still, Trix," said Mildred.

"This man will take your picture.

"Look at me. Now it is taken.

"The man thinks it is a good one.

"You may get out now."

A PICTURE

(Memorize)

Somebody sings a merry song.
 Somebody's happy all day long.
 Somebody runs with willing feet.
 Somebody's always gentle and sweet.
 Somebody's face is bright to see.
 Do you think that somebody looks like me?

REVIEW

Mamma went away to-day.

She let me get dinner.

Papa and I had dinner together.

Papa said, "What a good dinner!"

"Guess what this is," he said.

He gave me a box.

"Look in it. It is good to eat."

Guess what I saw?

A box of candy.

We had some for dinner.

I have some for mamma.

I think papa is good to me.

Now I say ā.

Now I say ǎ.

Now I say ä.

Now I say ȃ.

Now I say à.

If I were your kitty,
How glad I should be!
I should love you so much,
That you would love me.

I'd mind all you said,
Yes, every word;
And I never would think
Of catching a bird.

Oh, take me! do, please!
I won't run away.
I'll be your dear kitty
From this very day.

See what Sam got for me.
 He went up into our tree for it.
 Mamma painted it.
 I can paint a little.
 Mamma shows me how.
 We paint in school, too.
 The apple trees look so pretty.

I wish you could see them.
 See how the blossoms look.
 I like the trees in blossom.
 They look so pretty.
 I wish the blossoms would not fall.
 They blow off.
 Little apples grow.
 They grow where the blossoms were.
 Apples do not look so pretty.

EXPRESSION LESSON

This is a good picture of you.

Little bird, do let me see
What you have up in the tree.

Oh, I see some eggs! One, two.
Birdie, I'm so glad for you.

Shall we see you by and by Showing birdies how to fly?

Grandpa thinks you'll want to go
If it's cold, and we have snow.

If you do, come back to me,
Birdie dear, and to my tree.

Look at this picture.

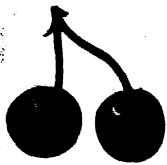

What are they doing?

Is n't this a store?

What is in the store?

Are the toys for Christmas?

See all the toys to sell.
Carl would like that monkey.
Baby sees some candy.
I would not buy candy, dear.
See the toy lamb.
That would be pretty to buy.
John would like a ball.
He lost his in the field.
Did you see the drum, John?
Buy it, and play soldier.
You would like a drum.
“I like Christmas day,” said Carl.
“Uncle John comes at Christmas.
“He buys us toys.”
Run home now, Carl and baby.
John, run to school.
You can not have toys to-day.

Grandpa is at my house.
This is grandpa's umbrella.
He said I could take it.
Isn't it a big one?

I can't hold it up.
I wish I had not taken it.
I have to hold my kitty.
She is afraid of dogs.
Don't be afraid, kitty.
I won't let them hurt you.
We are going to see Mildred.
Mildred and I play together.
Sometimes we play house.
Sometimes we play store.
I think we shall play house to-day.
We can put up this umbrella.
That will be a good house.
I am glad I have it.
Won't we have fun, kitty?
We can play all day.
You will not run home, will you?
You will get lost, if you do.

REVIEW

Isn't a Christmas tree pretty?

We had one at our home.

Papa got it at the store.

We put toys on it.

Baby had a toy monkey.

He had some cars, too.

Laura had a pretty sled.

Carl got a box of soldiers.

Mildred had a big doll.

Mamma painted a picture for me.

Papa gave me a bird.

I wish you could hear it sing.

I like to have Christmas come.

Do you have a Christmas tree?
